

God Loves Adam and Eve

Adam and Eve loved God. God loved them!
They loved to be with God and talk to Him.

God had told Adam, "Eat whatever fruit you want. But do not eat of this one tree." Adam had told Eve. But one day, a serpent came to the garden. It was really God's enemy, Satan. He told Eve, "You can eat the fruit from the special tree."

Eve listened to Satan. She looked at the fruit. She picked it. She ate some and gave some to Adam. Suddenly, Adam and Eve knew they had done wrong. They wanted to HIDE from God!

Adam and Eve had disobeyed God.
They had to leave the garden.
But God never stopped loving them.
God promised that someday, someone would come to make things right again.
Guess who!
